

The Canadian Society of Value Analysis is hosting a meet and greet on the evening of Thursday June 11, 2009 in Ottawa for members and those interested in Value Analysis. A number of members of the Canadian Society of Value Analysis (CSVA) executive will be in Ottawa on the evening of June 11, 2009, and will be looking forward to meeting you including:

- President Scot McClintock from Liverpool, NY
- Immediate Past-President Steve Taylor from Ottawa
- Past – President Steve Holmes from St. Catharine's
- Treasurer Ronald Blanchet from Montreal
- Director, Steve Stoddard from Ottawa

Please join us for an informal meet and greet in Ottawa at 5:00 PM at the:

Black Bear Pub
160 Bay Street
Ottawa, ON K1R 7X8
(613) 234-1116
Link: Website

The Black Bear pub is located in the Albert at Bay Suites hotel and is one of the truly authentic Scottish pubs in Ottawa. Come let the CSVA buy you some appetizers and share in our Value Analysis experiences. CSVA Members and non-members interested in Value Analysis, Value Engineering are welcome.